CONFIRMING PASSPORT:

The given document provides the legal basis for the seller's transfer of these terms and parameters for preparing of the draft contract and shall become an integral part of the future contract and valid for up to 5 days from the date presented to the seller.

Regards,

Dr. Şeref TUFAN
Business Owner / Ceo

Compromised Offer: " I don't even change the point sign in the recipient procedure. I don't care about the seller or mandate requests. If you have fraud attempts like TSA/TSR/DTA, don't even think about it. I don't make the seller requests. "

1. The Buyer issues an irrevocable Corporate Purchase Order (ICPO) together with the Company Registration Certificate and a copy of the Buyer's international passport.
2. Seller prepares a Draft Sales and Purchase Agreement (SPA) Contract for final approval by both parties. (36 months old)
3. The seller provides the following documents to the buyer:
 - (a) Supply Approval/Commitment Letter
 - (b) Tank Receipt
 - (c) Certificate of Origin of the Product
 - (d) Product Availability Declaration
 - (e) Product Passport
4. After successful verification of the above documents, the buyer requests proof of fuel availability in the seller's tanks before agreeing to tank expansion. The seller must provide one of the following documents as proof of fuel in the tanks:
 - (a) Current SGS report showing the amount of fuel in the tanks.
 - (b) Product sample analysis report from an accredited laboratory confirming the presence of fuel.
 - (c) Other mutually agreed upon documentation providing sufficient evidence of fuel in tanks.

* If the seller cannot provide satisfactory evidence of fuel availability, no tank extension payment will be made and the transaction will be deemed invalid. The buyer will not incur any costs associated with the expansion of the tank.

* If the seller provides satisfactory evidence of fuel availability, the buyer agrees to pay the 2-day tank extension payment within 48 hours on the same date as the fuel bill each month for 36 months. This regulation will be stated in the SPA. The buyer will not be required to make any payment until the updated bottom test reports are completed at the discharge port of the fuel. No hidden fees or mandatory fees will be charged and no TSR (Tank Storage Receipt) will be issued.

This 2-day tank extension allows the seller to begin injecting the product onto a vessel for shipment to the buyer's designated port. The buyer agrees to pay the 2-day tank extension payment every month for 36 months on the same date as the fuel invoice. This regulation will be stated in the SPA. The buyer will not be required to make any payment until the updated bottom test reports are completed at the discharge port of the fuel. No hidden fees or mandatory fees will be charged and no TSR (Tank Storage Receipt) will be issued.

5. After successful confirmation, the seller begins to load the products into the tank or ship specified by the buyer and the shipment begins. The seller sends all Proof of Item (POP) documentation to the buyer, including:

- (a) Copy of Export License Issued by the Department of the Ministry of Energy
- (b) Copy of the Export Approval Certificate Issued by the Department of the Ministry of Justice
- (c) Copy of Product Availability Notification
- (d) Copy of the Refinery Commitment for the Production of the Product
- (e) Copy of the Contract for Transportation of the Product to the Port
- (f) Copy of Port Storage Agreement
- (g) Immersion Test Authorization
- (h) Tank Receipt
- (j) SGS Report

The seller also confirms the Non-Cheating, Non-Disclosure Agreement (NCNDA) / International Master Fee Protection Agreement (IMFPA) signed by all parties and submits it to the relevant banks.

6. After successful Quantity and Quality (Q&Q) inspection by the buyer at the port of discharge, the buyer pays the seller via MT103. Payment will be made after the buyer's physical visit to the discharge port and completion of the bottom test/SGS inspection.
7. After successful confirmation of the buyer's payment to the bank account indicated by the seller, the seller pays the intermediary commissions within 72 hours after receiving the buyer's payment for the product.
8. 60-month conditions will not change and if the contract is cancelled, the seller or buyer will pay the aggrieved party total compensation equal to the contract price.
